

NABI has adopted all means of dissemination of information which are also accessible to larger public like notice board, newspapers, media broadcasts, CPPP website and internet. All such information which is of public interest is always being floated into newspapers and also uploaded on institute's website under the link 'Latest news'/News at NABI' etc.

With this, NABI is of the practice of putting all the important information on its Notice board and newspaper for wider dissemination.